Dance Dramaturgy: Modes of Agency, Awareness and Engagement (New World Choreographies):

Ten international dramaturg-scholars advance proposals that reset notions of agency in contemporary dance creation. Dramaturgy becomes driven by artistic inquiry, distributed among collaborating artists, embedded in improvisation tasks, or weaved through audience engagement, and the dramaturg becomes a facilitator of dramaturgical awareness.

About the Author Pil Hansen is Assistant Professor in Dance and Drama at the University of Calgary, Canada, and dramaturg of Vertical City Performance and Kaeja's Dance. Her research results and methods in cognitive performance studies and dramaturgy have been published widely.
