Ryan Brechmacher : Dancing Goblins: For Early Intermediate Piano Solo (Signature Series) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dancing Goblins: For Early Intermediate Piano Solo (Signature Series):

What do goblins do after they have caused trouble in our world? Why, they celebrate of course, with a dance! With a tempo of Presto! And a 4/4 meter, this piece in A minor showcases a dashing, daring, and quirky dervish that challenges the student with racing slurred scales on top of a crisp ever-changing foundation in the left hand. Coordinating these two different aspects will provide a rewarding challenge as the two components come together to form a wonderfully colorful party of sound. And why not? After all, it's Halloween!
