Willie Cannon-Brown : Nefer: The Aesthetic Ideal in Classical Egypt (African Studies) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Nefer: The Aesthetic Ideal in Classical Egypt (African Studies):

This book provides an original treatment of the concept of good and beauty in ancient Egypt. It seeks to examine the dimensions of nefer, the term used to describe the good and the beautiful, within the context of ordinary life. Because the book is based upon original research on ancient Egypt it opens up space for a review of the aesthetics of other African societies in the Nile Valley. Thus, it serves as a heuristic for further research and scholarship.

About the Author Dr. Willie Cannon-Brown has taught at Peirce College for 29 years, and contributed a chapter in the Handbook of Black Studies titled "Decapitated and lynched forms: suggested ways of examining contemporary tests."
