Maggy Baccinelli : New Orleans Neighborhoods: A Cultural Guide (Landmarks) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised New Orleans Neighborhoods: A Cultural Guide (Landmarks):

Where y?at? In New Orleans, this simple question can yield hundreds of answers. People on the same block might say that they live in Pigeon Town, Pension Town or Carrollton, but they have surely all danced together at the neighborhood?s Easter Sunday second-line. Did you know that gospel queen Mahalia Jackson grew up singing in a little pink church in the Black Pearl or that Treme is the oldest African American neighborhood in the country? In an exploration that weaves together history, culture and resident stories, Maggy Baccinelli captures New Orleans' neighborhood identities from the Mississippi River to Lake Pontchartrain.
