

(Free pdf) Nijinsky: Death of a Faun (Modern Playwrights)

Nijinsky: Death of a Faun (Modern Playwrights)

David Pownall

Download PDF / ePub / DOC / audiobook / ebooks*

Download

Read Online

#2558248 in eBooks 2013-11-14 2013-11-14 File Name: B00GNZU9LG | File size: 54.Mb

David Pownall : Nijinsky: Death of a Faun (Modern Playwrights) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Nijinsky: Death of a Faun (Modern Playwrights):

The stormy love affair between the legendary dancer Nijinsky and his mentor Diaghilev is the best known scandal in the history of ballet. Set in a mental asylum, as Nijinsky hears of the death of the great impresario and fears for his own life. With an introduction by Nicholas Dromgoole.

About the Author "David Pownall was born in Liverpool and he is a graduate of Keele University. He was dramatist in residence with the Century and Duke's Playhouse, Lancaster and co-founder of Paines Plough Theatre Company with John Adams. His internationally-performed plays include Music to Murder By, An Audience Called Edouard, Beef, Livingstone and Sechele and Master Class. Her most recent new play was Getting the Picture at The Lyric, Belfast. Theatre awards include the John Whiting Prize for Beef, the New York Theatre Yearbook, the LS Directors' Award for Livingstone and Sechele, and many others. He has published ten novels and a collection of short stories. "