Angela Rosenthal : No Laughing Matter: Visual Humor in Ideas of Race, Nationality, and Ethnicity (Interfaces: Studies in Visual Culture) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised No Laughing Matter: Visual Humor in Ideas of Race, Nationality, and Ethnicity (Interfaces: Studies in Visual Culture):

The role of race and ethnicity in global humor

"The scholarship in this volume is superior across the board and a much-needed contribution to the field of race and representation in Western art. Approaching the issues of race and stereotype from another angle, that of humor, these essays help us expand our thinking about power, resistance, and ambivalence, complicating already complicated discourse on identity." --Adrienne Childs, WE.B. Du Bois Research Institute, Harvard University

"The essays in . . . this outstanding collection focus on selected works of art that characterize racial, ethnic or gender stereotypes within a culture." ARLIS/NA

"An important contribution to discourses of power and identity. . . . Highly recommended. Choice"
