Arthur Wing Pinero : The Second Mrs Tanqueray (Oberon Modern Plays) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Second Mrs Tanqueray (Oberon Modern Plays):

When Aubrey Tanqueray marries for the second time, he knows that his new wife, Paula, is a l'squo;woman with a past's; But he has no idea how that past will catch up with him in the end. More probing than Oscar Wilde, more accessible than Ibsen, Pinero's The Second Mrs Tanqueray (1893) is one of the masterpieces of the Victorian theatre: sexy, dramatic, funny and very moving.

"The illusion of Victorian solidity conjured to perfection." - The Telegraph 'Poetic, fast-paced and worth the trip.' - The Huffington Post 'Fascinating.' - The Stage 'Compelling throughout - an intriguingly conflicted play.' - British Theatre Guide" About the Author Born in 1855, Arthur Wing Pinero was an English actor, then playwright director. He is considered by some to have been the leading playwright during the Victorian and Edwardian periods. His plays include The School Mistress, The Magistrate and Trelawny of the Wells. In 1909 he became the second ever man to be knighted for services to drama. He died in 1934.
