Henry Harris : The Secret Life of Celebrities before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Secret Life of Celebrities:

Imagine a family, all sitting around the TV, possibly the only TV in the house. Dad is holding the remote control, which everyone refers to as 'the clicker.' The remote has only two functions. One of the functions turns the TV off and on. The other changes the channels, all 7 or 8 of them, with a click of a button. Now try to imagine what that family is watching. Are you imagining them watching one of the classic TV shows from the 1970's? Maybe the 60's or even earlier, and then you have today's celebrities that seem to make movies in a flash and before you know it you have family movie night!
