I wouldn't suggest it as the first book you get, or one to learn to sew for your dog. It does have some very good, imaginative ideas on how to combine colors and fabrics to obtain truly a one of a kind design. It includes a double sided, large pull out sheet of patterns for a dog outfit and some of the designs they show. If you are looking for a dog coat or dress pattern book, I wouldn't suggest it. If you are looking for new ideas to make your best friend a truly special outfit, then this book is for you.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Too Cute!!By BevThis book has so many wonderful ideas for adapting/recycling clothes etc to make these adorable outfits! I've been quilting and dollmaking for years so these patterns I consider to be at the intermediate level, but worth the try if you're a beginner at sewing. I'm now going to recycle my little boy maltese's denim jacket for my little girl chihuahua, a little lace, some sparkle and voila! Can't beat the price! Thanks .0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. GiftedBy CustomerOrdered twice by accident. Satisfied. would order again.

Canine couture with pooch personality-18 over-the-top, fancifully embellished costumes for both male and female dogs.

Wearable Art has gone to the dogs! Well, the dogs have gone to Virgie Fisher for fabulous doggie Wearable Arf. After nearly 20 years of designing and creating wearable garments for the Fairfield Fashion Show and Bernina Fashion Show and fiber art wall pieces for private and corporate clients, including Wells Fargo, Virgie Fisher has begun to create Wearable Arf. She has archaeology experience, with studies in Israel, Egypt, and Jordan. Rachele had seen many heartbreaking sights of animal cruelty and neglect while living in various states and traveling abroad. The unbearably helpless feeling of seeing a little fellow suffer and having no control to help has led her to become a supporter of rescue and humane groups. Leaving behind her teaching career, she began creating adorable doggie dollhouses for small dogs. In 2005, she developed Studio D-og where she has combined her love of art and her love for dogs. The online boutique showcases one-of-a-kind and custom dog beds that are designed to look like doll houses, as well as fabulous Wearable Arf, wearable art for dogs, for a private Beverly Hills and Hollywood clientele. Her work has been featured in many luxury pet magazines and at celebrity events and has even been seen "behind the scenes" on film sets and at the 2006 New Year's Eve party at Chateau Marmont.
