1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Fabulous photographyBy CustomerI'm a relatively new beekeeper and this book was really helpful in showing what to look for in a healthy hive. The pictures were gorgeous and the explanations straightforward.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Fantastic! Very timelyBy Tony YarishFantastic! Very timely. Great teaching tool for children and older. The world needs this. Our pollinators are in peril on a global basis and the public needs to know how important our honey bees are to our food production. Well done Jake!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great educational book!By KathleenI learned so much reading this little book. Thank you for sharing your knowledge og bees with the world.

What Do Honeybees Do? is an educational picture book that is designed for the elementary school age child, but is for children of all ages and anyone who is interested in the amazing honeybee.It is a book that introduces the fundamentals of the hive, the honeybee and the work that honeybees do inside and outside of the hive. Written and photographed by a professional beekeeper, "What Do Honeybees Do?" gives the reader a glimpse into the hive and the close up world of this amazing insect that so greatly impacts humanity.This book comes at a time when the honeybee is under incredible stress worldwide and is intended to introduce this important creature to younger generations in the hope that they will work toward responsible stewardship of the honeybee.Jake Yarish has spent seven years in the commercial beekeeping industry working for two separate companies specializing in queen breeding in Hawaii. Before moving to Hawaii, he was certified by the State of California to control Africanized honeybees also known as "killer bees". He worked for three years controlling Africanized honeybee swarms for a small family owned pest control company in Southern California. Jake lives near San Diego with his wife and three children.

"The kids loved the book! They really enjoyed the large, beautiful photographs. They asked a lot of questions while I was reading. They were very impressed!" - Rebecca Courtney, PreSchool Teacher of The Year, Marin Head Start, Marin County, California.
