Ernie Paniccioli, Kevin Powell : Who Shot Ya?: Three Decades of HipHop Photography before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Who Shot Ya?: Three Decades of HipHop Photography:

Nearly thirty years ago, Ernie Paniccioli, considered by many to be the James Van Der Zee of the hip-hop generation, began photographing graffiti art throughout New York City as well as the young people creating it. Armed with a 35-millimeter camera, Paniccioli literally recorded the beginning salvos of hip-hop, today the most dominant youth culture on the planet. Be it Grandmaster Flash at the Roxy, a summer block party in the Bronx, the fresh faces of Jay-Z and Will Smith, the cocksure personas of Tupac Shakur, The Notorious B.I.G., and Eminem, or the regal grace of Lauryn Hill, Ernie Paniccioli has been there to showcase hip-hop's emerging talent. With more than 200 photographs that have been culled from a vast archive, Who Shot Ya? is the first major pictorial history of hip-hop culture.
