By NameBR
This can be superficial to most of us, however it is important to be conscious of the way we look and the message we are transmitting through our clothing. Clothing and beauty are CRITICAL PARTS of our personal and professional style, with this book we can start decoding how this subject is being treated by professionals in the Fashion field. Great reference book, it will help me to move forward, because of its simple and valuable pieces of advice, also tons of external sources of info. Easy to read and follow, for Fashion beginners like me. I recommend this book and respect the Authors. Cheers!

By Zauberdwald
As the title of this review suggests, I found this book to essentially be a glorified magazine. This would be a great guide for someone who is truly clueless when it comes to style (think 'What not to Wear' contestants), but the average adult female, especially those likely to purchase this book, probably won't be blown away with the information this guide has to offer. Plus, the model they chose for the 'example outfits' was awful... she looked slightly dopey and awkward. Nevertheless, there were a few good tips and the pictures were fun to look at. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Im glad I got the copy By Kevin Farrar Im glad I got the copy of this its somewhat evolved my life

A smart and stylish fashion and beauty guide from the creators of the popular website WhoWhatWear.com. Now, the creators share their tricks of the trade, translating high fashion in a low-fuss, accessible way. Hillary Kerr and Katherine Power, two former Elle magazine editors, are the fashionable duo behind the booming website. In Who What Wear they've compiled the best of their tips and advice into one stylish compendium. Trends come and go at a dizzying pace and it can be challenging to just get dressed in the morning! Kerr and Power banish those fashion faux-pas fears and give readers the tools necessary to update their own personal styles and recognize and incorporate the latest runway and Hollywood looks. Celebrity contributors such as Rachel Zoe, Nicole Richie, and Rachel Bilson also dish their insider style secrets alongside images from the runway and beyond.

About the Author Katherine Power is the co-founder and creative director of WhoWhatWear.com and was formerly the West Coast Editor of Elle. Hillary Kerr is the co-founder and editorial director of WhoWhatWear.com. Kerr previously was a Lifestyle Editor at Elle and has written for Teen Vogue, Maxim, and Nylon.
