Bradley Trevor Greive : Why Dogs Are Better Than Cats before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Why Dogs Are Better Than Cats:

I have shared my home with many a cat in the past and find them to be very "unique" characters! I just happen to absolutely adore dogs!!! I got this book in the other day and found it to be a wonderfully insightful, and comedic, read! And no, the author is not "slamming" cats; indeed, he obviously has a healthy respect for felines. However, it's quite evident he's a "dog person". Plus, the photographs throughout the book are fantastic as well as heartwarming! This book goes great with a cup of coffee on a rainy day...with your "fur kid" (of whatever persuasion) asleep at your side!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Just a great book. Cat lovers with a sense of humor ...By Rachel HackenbruchJust a great book. Cat lovers with a sense of humor tend to love it as well, people who are easily offended by nonsense are the only ones who get annoyed by this book. Wonderfully visually designed as well - all the graphic designers I know are very impressed by the colors, photography, and layout.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. made to be funny, but many of the treatises

Some pairings are just meant to be: peanut butter and chocolate, yin and yang, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. So it was only a matter of time before the stars in the universe lined up and suggested the collaboration between New York Times best selling author Bradley Trevor Greive and award-winning photographer Rachael Hale. Teaming up on their first collaborative effort, Greive and Hale explain once and for all Why Dogs Are Better Than Cats. Now, before all you cat lovers find your fur standing on end, Greive is quick to stress that he is simply "prodog, not anticat. The purpose of this book is not to criticize cats or their owners, but to champion the many exceptional virtues unique to dogs." What are these unique attributes that make canine companions superior to their feline fiends? (Oops, we meant friends.) Consider the following: Put simply: * Dogs are social. Cats are sociopaths. * Dogs match up to people. People must match up to cats. * Dogs teach us patience. Cats test our patience. * Dogs give and give. Cats are the gift that keeps on grifting. The bottom line is this: Dogs want love. Cats want fish. Although Greive admits that there is something to be said for "soft, warm, and sleepy" (a.k.a. cats) as captured in Hale's cuddly feline photographs, he concludes that dogs would be the only ones with character enough to admit this fact, thereby once again positioning themselves as the superior pet, confidant, admirer, and friend.
